

Training made possible through the South Bend Pathways On Demand Workforce Development Program

AN INTRODUCTION TO MANUFACTURING

A series of six, 4-hour sessions to provide essential skills that employers are looking for!

Strengthen Your Skills to Excel at a Career in Manufacturing!

Join us for six FREE sessions to help you prepare for a successful career in manufacturing. Participants will explore an introduction to the industry and the skills needed to be productive and safe in your role. The sessions are tailored to individuals new to the industry or seeking to work in the manufacturing industry.

Training revolves around basic principles in manufacturing, safety protocols, quality control, and continuous improvement. Sessions will have both hands-on training techniques and classroom-style learning.

Topics include:

- What is Manufacturing?
- Lean Manufacturing Techniques
- Safety in Manufacturing
- An Introduction to Quality Tools & Techniques
- Skills for Workplace Success for Job Seekers & Incumbent Workers

You are just six short sessions away from a fulfilling job in manufacturing! Sign up today!

For additional information and to register go to:

<https://purdue.ws/SouthBendPathways2024>

APPROPRIATE FOR:

- Individuals seeking work in manufacturing or new to the manufacturing workforce

PROGRAM DETAILS:

- January 15 & 16, 22 & 23, and 29 & 30
- 10:00 am - 2:00 pm ET
- South Bend area
Additional details will be sent to participants after registration is confirmed.

REGISTRATION DETAILS:

- Class capped at 20 people total

PRICING:

- This training is provided free of charge to South Bend area residents

Manufacturing
Extension Partnership

mep.purdue.edu